STUDEN KLADENETZ

The hunting reserve bears the name of the dam lake «Studen Kladenec» and is situated south of it, on part of the slopes of the Eastern Rhodope Mountains. Its acreage is 5577 hectares, which includes the typical for the region fauna and species variety, and also number of endangered plant life and animal species.

The reserve offers hunting of big game fallow deer (trophy and selection), roe, wild boar; predators wolf, fox and small game hare, thrasian quail, ring-dove and allowed for hunting species of wild ducks. The reserve has two comfortable hunting lodges, with 8 beds each and offers traditional local dishes made from organic products produced in the area. Lake «Studen kladenets» is a place of exceptional beauty with panorama views, interesting rocks, roaming birds of prey and rich biodiversity. The lake begins after the city of Kardzhali and ends at the dam near the village of Studen kladenets. Nature sites Sredna Arda, Yumruk skala and Golemiya sipey are ranged on its left shore. On the right (southern) shore of the lake is the game reserve Studen kladenets. From the western border of the reserve you can admire spectacular views of lake Studen Kladenets, Sredna Arda, and Yumruk Skala. The reserve is famous for its enormous population of fallow deer. This wilderness area is also home to red deer, roe deer, European bison, otter, wild boar, fox, wild horses, and many other species. Vultures, black storks, and white-tailed eagles are regularly seen roaming the sky, while wolves come over from the neighboring Valchi Dol Nature Reserve located just a few flaps of the wings to the east.

HOST

Your gracious host will be Svetlomisr Harisanov. For several decades he has influenced the bulgarian hunting industry. After his studies of forestry sciences he was the general manager of the well known federal hunting estate of Karakus from 1978 until 1983. Afterwards he was a member of a rophy evaluation comission of the bulgarian hunters association between 1978 until 1992. During this time he has evaluated several thousand trophies of all bulgarian big game animals. In 1994 Svetlomisr decided to found his own hunting agency ARTEMIS. Since then he had hundreds and hundreds of guest hunters from all over the world. He will be taking great care with all aspects involved with your trip. and find the best estate for you.
