PRIVATE ESTATE 'HEIDEHOF-GOLMBERG'

The private forestry operation is located south of Berlin, between the towns of Luckenwalde and Baruth/Mark. It covers an area of approx. 3,400 hectares on the Heidehof training ground formerly used by Russian forces. The estate is an Eldorado for red deer, fallow deer, mouflon, wild boar and roe deer. It is part of the Heidehof-Golmberg natural preserve.

The annual harvest is approx. 30 red stags, 180 wild boar, 20 fallow stags, and 50 roe bucks. Migrating mouflon is often seen as well. The area is almost completely covered with forest, 80% of which are pines, with the remaining 20 % made up of Douglas fir, oak, beech and other hardwood.

Two drives will be made on both hunting days (approx. 4 hours per day). At the end of the hunt, the game animals are collected and transported to the forestry station to be gralloched and then displayed in traditional manner. We recommend this driven hunt to the dedicated red-deer expert! The traditional German code of hunting ethics must be strictly observed!
