PRIVATELY OWNED HUNTING ESTATE HEILIGENBORN

The privately owned hunting estate Heiligenborn is owned by Dieter Mennekes. He is the owner of the hunting estates in Heidehof-Golmberg as well as Kirchhundem. His estate in Heiligenborn covers around 450 hectares of prime hunting grounds. During the entire year the hunting pressure is really low. Forestry plays only a minor role in the economic system of the estate. The estate covers primarily beech forests with an abundant of red deer, roe deer and wildboar of all size. The main target species here is clearly the red deer. This hunting ground is well known for its prime red deer herds. Only two driven hunts are conducted here each year. Each of them is planned well in advance with much love for the detail. If you want to book this fantastic driven hunt please give us a call.
